

PUBLIC NOTICE

10 June 2018

The Social Security Commission of Namibia has regrettably learned of unauthorized access to clients' information through our website. As a result, the online submission of forms by employers using the site has been compromised.

The following measures have been taken with immediate effect:

1. We have improved our security measures to prevent and prohibit any further unauthorized access to all areas of the SSC Website.
2. We have removed all affected files.
3. We have temporarily suspended any online submissions via the SSC website until further notice.

We would like to assure our clients that no records from our systems have been deleted because the core business application of the SSC is not accessible externally.
