Public NOTICE!

Fraud Alert

TransNamib Holdings Ltd wish to alert the public to an active email and telephone scam involving purchase orders and requests for product quotations, that claim to originate from TransNamib Holdings Ltd, but are in fact fraudulent.

We hereby share common traits or themes of these fraudulent emails that may help reduce risks to your company in becoming a financial victim of this scam:

- The Purchase Order is of poor quality
- At the end of the Purchase Order it incorporates reference to the company "Namibia Power Corporation"
- The Purchase Order has no order number
- The contact numbers are not correct
- The contact person is not an employee of TransNamib Holdings Ltd
- The message may include an attachment that is designed to look like a Purchase Order, may include a logo or other graphic, and a signature that may look legitimate

If you believe that you have received a fraudulent email that appears to be from TransNamib Holdings Ltd, you may forward it to our Procurement Department to verify its legitimacy before responding to the email or completing the order.

TransNamib Holdings Ltd shall not be held responsible for any suppliers and financial loss suffered as a result of these fraudulent orders.
